Commissioner Weber moved "that a conditional offer of employment not be extended to the individual on whom we have the completed Background Investigation and that his name be removed from the Eligibility List." The motion was unanimously passed.

Based on what was learned and discussed about the other person named to Chief Marvin from the Eligibility List, Commissioner Weber moved "that we not offer him a conditional offer of employment and remove his name from the Eligibility List." The motion was unanimously passed.

ITEMS FROM THE FLOOR

Chief Marvin reported he would be sending the Commissioners a letter asking that no further names be provided from the Eligibility List until the next testing of applicants is completed.
